

The role of ADK Environmental Management Limited is to ensure environmental compliance for construction and development projects using sound, best practice environmental management techniques, surveys and assessments.

Our surveys and assessments are carried out to help our clients during their initial planning and pre-development processes by addressing any stipulations raised by statutory consultees, such as Local Authorities, Environment Agency and English Nature in respect to their environmental and development policies concerning areas around ecology, landscape and sustainable development.

- Protected species
 - (Great crested newts, water voles, bats, barn owls, badgers, otters, crayfish)
- Invasive species
 - (Japanese knotweed, Giant hogweed, Himalayan balsam)
- Eradication of invasive species (with certification and verification report)
- Environmental Impact Assessments (EIAs)
- Breeding bird surveys
- Pond surveys
- GPS & Geo-physical surveys
- Phase 1&2 habitat surveys (NVC surveys)
- Tree and hedgerow surveys
- Contaminated Land Risk Assessments & Appraisals (Phase 1)
- Asbestos surveys (Type 1) with Register and Management Plan
- River corridor surveys

- Habitat restoration & creation
- Environmental site inspections
- Invertebrate & Reptile surveys
- Environmental audits and compliance monitoring
- Ecological Risk Assessments (ERAs)
- Agricultural services and land quality surveys
- Soil & water sampling (laboratory testing)

Our aim is to satisfy our clients' needs by providing cost-effective, good quality and timely solutions.

For further information and to find out more about our services please visit our website or call us direct for an informal discussion.

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT LTD

